n the midst of “globalization” more and more people are searching for their “Tribe”.

Travelers search for unique and authentic experiences which connect them to local individuals and culture. They want to find (and more importantly be a part of) the “secret spots” and the “real” stories each city has to tell.

Xpose carefully curates & recommends experiences based on what each brand’s personality and positioning.

Lifestyle & Music — the vision

Today's Lisbon is thriving with music & events.

An intimate mix of national and international people bringing the city an unique vibe. A rich cultural set pervades the city. Events and happenings all over the city promote friendships and create community in the process.

Everything from jam sessions to DJ sets, cinema screenings to yoga workshops, healthy brunches to poetry readings.

We curate events catered to your needs.

Contributing to brands by building rich communities means curating all sorts of events...

music events with both emergent or more consolidated artists - yet always edgy and cool, these are both from Portugal or from abroad but share a special bond with the country.
